Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

The following information, including Exhibit 99.1 hereto, referenced in this Item 2.02, is being furnished pursuant to this Item 2.02 and shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, nor shall it be deemed incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such filing.

On December 3, 2020, Duluth Holdings Inc. (the “Company” or “Duluth Trading”) issued a press release (the “Earnings Press Release”) discussing, among other things, its financial results for its fiscal third quarter ended November 1, 2020. A copy of the Earnings Press Release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this report.

Forward Looking Information

Certain matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K and other oral and written statements by representatives of the Company including, but not limited to, the Company’s ability to meet its fiscal 2020 expectations (including its ability to increase net sales, adjusted EBITDA, and diluted EPS) and its ability to execute on its growth strategies, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “may,” “might,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “could,” “believe,” “estimate,” “project,” “target,” “predict,” “intend,” “future,” “budget,” “goals,” “potential,” “continue,” “design,” “objective,” “would,” and other similar expressions. The forward-looking statements are not historical facts, and are based upon Duluth Trading’s current expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections, and various assumptions, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and beyond Duluth Trading’s control. Duluth Trading’s expectations, beliefs and projections are expressed in good faith, and Duluth Trading believes there is a reasonable basis for them. However, there can be no assurance that management’s expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections will result or be achieved and actual results may vary materially from what is expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements, including, among others, the risks, uncertainties, and factors set forth under “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 20, 2020 and Part II, Item 1A “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on June 5, 2020 and September 4, 2020, and other factors as may be periodically described in Duluth Trading’s subsequent filings with the SEC. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following: our ability to maintain and enhance a strong brand image; our ability to successfully open new stores; effectively adapting to new challenges associated with our expansion into new geographic markets; generating adequate cash from our existing stores to support our growth; the inability to maintain the performance of a maturing store portfolio; the impact of changes in corporate tax regulations; identifying and responding to new and changing customer preferences; the success of the locations in which our stores are located; our ability to attract and retain customers in the various retail venues and locations in which our stores are located; competing effectively in an environment of intense competition; our ability to adapt to significant changes in sales due to the seasonality of our business; price reductions or inventory shortages resulting from failure to purchase the appropriate amount of inventory in advance of the season in which it will be sold; increases in costs of fuel or other energy, transportation or utility costs and in the costs of labor and employment; failure of our information technology systems to support our current and growing business, before and after our planned upgrades; and other factors that may be disclosed in our SEC filings or otherwise. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements are made. Duluth Trading assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, subsequent events or circumstances or other changes affecting forward-looking information except to the extent required by applicable securities laws.

Duluth Holdings Inc. Announces Third Quarter Fiscal 2020 Financial Results

MOUNT HOREB, Wis., December 3, 2020 – Duluth Holdings Inc. (dba, Duluth Trading Company) (“Duluth Trading” or the “Company”) (NASDAQ: DLTH), an omnichannel lifestyle brand of men’s and women’s casual wear, workwear and accessories, today announced its financial results for the fiscal third quarter ended November 1, 2020.

Highlights for the Third Quarter Ended November 1, 2020

- Net sales increased 13.2% to $135.5 million compared to $119.8 million in the prior-year third quarter
- Direct-to-consumer net sales increased 40.3% and retail store net sales decreased 15.5% compared to prior-year third quarter
- Gross margin decreased to 52.4% compared to 54.6% in the prior-year third quarter
- Operating income increased to $2.8 million compared to operating income of $1.3 million in the prior-year third quarter
- Net income increased to $0.9 million, or $0.03 per diluted share, compared to net income of $0.2 million, or $0.01 per diluted share, in the prior-year third quarter
- Adjusted EBITDA¹ increased 57.4% to $11.4 million compared to $7.3 million in the prior-year third quarter
- The Company opened three retail stores in Springfield OR, Orland Park IL and Florence KY, adding approximately 32,800 gross square feet

¹See Reconciliation of net income (loss) to EBITDA and EBITDA to Adjusted EBITDA in the accompanying financial tables.

Management Commentary

“We’re pleased to report third quarter net sales growth of 13% to $136 million, largely driven by a 40% growth in direct sales year-over-year. Effective and timely brand messaging, coupled with strong product lines, drove top line sales momentum during the third quarter,” said Steve Schlecht, Executive Chairman and CEO of Duluth Trading. “Customer traffic from our digital channel continued at the same strong pace as the second quarter with 15 million site visits, up 30% to last year. All 65 of our retail stores were open during the quarter. Retail store sales declined just 16% year-over-year, which was the best store performance we’ve seen since the pandemic began.”

Schlecht continued, “While the remainder of the holiday shopping season is difficult to predict, we’ve done everything within our control to be prepared for our peak fourth quarter. We are fully staffed across all our operations; inventory levels are in good shape, and we’re fortunate to have customer-centric technologies in place like buy-on-line, pick-up in store. We remain confident in our brand, the strength of our omni-channel model and our team’s ability to provide an exceptional customer experience this holiday season and beyond.”

Operating Results for the Third Quarter Ended November 1, 2020

Net sales increased 13.2%, to $135.5 million, compared to $119.8 million in the same period a year ago. The increase was attributed to a 40.3% increase in direct-to-consumer net sales, partially offset by a 15.5% decrease in retail store net sales. The increase in the direct-to-consumer net sales was driven by a shift of existing customers to online, as well as new buyer growth. Total new buyer growth increased 22.9% compared to the same period a year ago. The decrease in retail store net sales was due to continued COVID-19 safety concerns keeping store traffic at subdued levels.

Net sales in non-store markets increased 37.5%, to $40.6 million, compared to $29.5 million in the same period a year ago. The increase was driven by new buyer growth and effective digital advertising to promote Pink Buck Naked, Big Dam Birthday and global sales events. Net sales in store markets increased 5.6%, to $93.8 million, compared to $88.8 million in the same period a year ago. The increase was driven by growth in online sales from both existing customers and new buyers, with direct-to-consumer sales in store markets increasing 45.9%, partially offset by a decline in in-store sales. We believe the difference in the increase in website and catalog sales between store and non-store markets continues to demonstrate the importance of our retail stores in building brand awareness and expanding our loyal customer base.

Men's business net sales increased 12.4% driven by growth in core products, Alaskan Hardgear and apparel newness. Women's business net sales increased 15.1% driven by comfortable basics, workwear essentials and plus line apparel.

Gross profit increased 8.7%, to $71.0 million, or 52.4% of net sales, compared to $65.4 million, or 54.6% of net sales, in the corresponding prior-year period. The decrease in gross margin rate was primarily driven by promotional, clearance and sitewide sales events to continue moving inventory during the period of slower store traffic and drive top-line growth. The decrease was partially offset by reduced store delivery costs from lower store sales volumes.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased 6.5% to $68.2 million, compared to $64.0 million in the same period a year ago. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general and administrative expenses decreased to 50.3%, compared to 53.5% in the corresponding prior-year period. The positive leverage was primarily due to shifting to a more efficient digital marketing approach as customer purchasing patterns migrated to online.

The increase in selling, general and administrative expense was due to increased shipping costs to support website sales, higher retail overhead costs driven by new store growth and increased depreciation expense associated with investments in technology, partially offset by reduced catalog spend and national TV advertising.

Balance Sheet and Liquidity

The Company ended the quarter with a cash balance of $12.8 million, an inventory balance of $213.4 million, net working capital of $136.6 million, $48.9 million outstanding on its $70.5 million term loan, and $43.0 million outstanding on its $80.0 million revolving line of credit.

Fiscal 2020 Outlook

Given the unpredictability of the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on, among other things, consumer behavior, store traffic, store operations, production capabilities, timing of deliveries, our people, economic activity and the market generally in the coming weeks and months, the Company is unable to provide specific earnings guidance at this time.

In response to expected impacts to sales plans, the Company has reduced its planned capital spend levels from the beginning of the fiscal year by 40% to approximately $17.0 million primarily by decreasing fiscal 2020 new store openings to four and deferring certain technology and infrastructure projects, as well as continuing to focus on managing expense, extending payment terms and adjusting inventory receipt plans.

The following table recaps the Company's fiscal 2020 stores opened, which reflects the Company's plan to reduce fiscal 2020 store openings, as well as the one signed new store lease for 2021 and the anticipated opening timeframe.

Non-GAAP Measurements

Management believes that non-GAAP financial measures may be useful in certain instances to provide additional meaningful comparisons between current results and results in prior operating periods. Within this release, including the tables attached hereto, reference is made to adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA). See attached Table “Reconciliation of Net Income (Loss) to EBITDA and EBITDA to Adjusted EBITDA,” for a reconciliation of net income (loss) to EBITDA and EBITDA to Adjusted EBITDA for the three and nine months ended November 1, 2020, versus the three and nine months ended November 3, 2019. Adjusted EBITDA is a metric used by management and frequently used by the financial community, which provides insight into an organization’s operating trends and facilitates comparisons between peer companies, since interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization can differ greatly between organizations as a result of differing capital structures and tax strategies. Adjusted EBITDA excludes certain items that are unusual in nature or not comparable from period to period. The Company provides this information to investors to assist in comparisons of past, present and future operating results and to assist in highlighting the results of on-going operations. While the Company’s management believes that non-GAAP measurements are useful supplemental information, such adjusted results are not intended to replace the Company’s GAAP financial results and should be read in conjunction with those GAAP results.

Forward-Looking Statements

This press release includes “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements, other than statements of historical facts included in this press release, including statements concerning Duluth Trading’s plans, objectives, goals, beliefs, business strategies, future events, business conditions, its results of operations, financial position and its business outlook, business trends and certain other information herein are forward-looking statements, including statements regarding Duluth Trading’s ability to execute on its growth strategies, and statements under the heading “Fiscal 2020 Outlook.” You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “may,” “might,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “could,” “believe,” “estimate,” “project,” “target,” “predict,” “intend,” “future,” “budget,” “goals,” “potential,” “continue,” “design,” “objective,” “forecasted,” “would” and other similar expressions. The forward-looking statements are not historical facts, and are based upon Duluth Trading’s current expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections, and various assumptions, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and beyond Duluth Trading’s control. Duluth Trading’s expectations, beliefs and projections are expressed in good faith, and Duluth Trading believes there is a reasonable basis for them. However, there can be no assurance that management’s expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections will be achieved and actual results may vary materially from what is expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements, including, among others, the risks, uncertainties, and factors set forth under Part I, Item 1A “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 20, 2020 and Part II, Item 1A “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on June 5, 2020 and September 4, 2020, and other factors as may be periodically described in Duluth Trading’s subsequent filings with the SEC. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the following: adverse changes in the economy or business conditions, including the adverse effects of the COVID-19 pandemic; prolonged effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on store traffic and disruptions to our distribution network, supply chains and operations; our ability to maintain and enhance a strong brand image; our ability to successfully open new stores; effectively adapting to new challenges associated with our expansion into new geographic markets; generating adequate cash from our existing stores to support our growth; the inability to maintain the performance of a maturing store portfolio; the impact of changes in corporate tax regulations; identifying and responding to new and changing customer preferences; the success of the locations in which our stores are located; our ability to attract and retain customers in the various retail venues and locations in which our stores are located; competing effectively in an environment of intense competition; our ability to adapt to significant changes in sales due to the seasonality of our business; price reductions or inventory shortages resulting from failure to purchase the appropriate amount of inventory in advance of the season in which it will be sold; increases in costs of fuel or other energy, transportation or utility costs and in the costs of labor and employment; failure of our information technology systems to support our current and growing business, before and after our planned upgrades; and other factors that may be disclosed in our SEC filings or otherwise. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements are made. Duluth Trading assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, subsequent events or circumstances or other changes affecting forward-looking information except to the extent required by applicable securities laws.
