

Duluth Holdings Inc. Announces Closing of Initial Public Offering

November 25, 2015 12:58 PM ET

BELLEVILLE, Wis., Nov. 25, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Duluth Holdings Inc. (dba, Duluth Trading Company) ("Duluth Trading"), a lifestyle brand of men's and women's casual wear, workwear and accessories, today announced the closing of its initial public offering of 7,666,667 shares of its Class B common stock at a public offering price of $12.00 per share. The number of shares issued at closing includes the exercise in full of the underwriters' option to purchase 1,000,000 additional shares. All of the shares were offered by Duluth Trading. Duluth Trading received approximately $85.6 million in proceeds from the offering, net of underwriting fees. The Class B common stock began trading on the NASDAQ Global Select Market on November 20, 2015 under the ticker symbol "DLTH."

Duluth Trading intends to use the net proceeds that it receives from this offering to repay borrowings under a short-term note used to fund part of its final "S" corporation distribution in connection with its conversion to a "C" corporation, retail store expansion and for general corporate purposes.

William Blair & Company, L.L.C., Robert W. Baird & Co. Incorporated, Raymond James & Associates, Inc. and BMO Capital Markets Corp. acted as joint book-running managers of the offering.

A registration statement relating to the securities was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 19, 2015. Forward-looking Statements

This press release includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of U.S. federal securities laws, including Duluth Trading's intended uses of proceeds. All statements, other than statements of historical facts included in this press release, including statements concerning Duluth Trading's plans, objectives, goals, beliefs, business strategies, future events, business conditions, its results of operations, financial position and its business outlook, business trends and certain other information herein are forward-looking statements. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as "may," "might," "will," "should," "expect," "plan," "anticipate," "could," "believe," "estimate," "project," "target," "predict," "intend," "future," "budget," "goals," "potential," "continue," "design," "objective," "would" and other similar expressions. The forward-looking statements are not historical facts, and are based upon Duluth Trading's current expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections, and various assumptions, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and beyond Duluth Trading's control. Duluth Trading's expectations, beliefs and projections are expressed in good faith, and Duluth Trading believes there is a reasonable basis for them. However, there can be no assurance that management's expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections will result or be achieved and actual results may vary materially from what is expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements, including, among others, the risks, uncertainties, and factors set forth under "Risk Factors" in the registration statement on Form S-1. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements are made. Duluth Trading assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, subsequent events or circumstances or other changes affecting forward-looking information except to the extent required by applicable securities laws.
