Forward Looking Information

Certain matters discussed in this Current Report on Form 8-K and related press release are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of words such as “may,” “might,” “will,” “should,” “expect,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “could,” “believe,” “estimate,” “project,” “target,” “predict,” “intend,” “future,” “budget,” “goals,” “potential,” “continue,” “design,” “objective,” “would,” and other similar expressions. The forward-looking statements are not historical facts, and are based upon Duluth Trading’s current expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections, and various assumptions, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and beyond Duluth Trading’s control. Duluth Trading’s expectations, beliefs and projections are expressed in good faith, and Duluth Trading believes there is a reasonable basis for them. However, there can be no assurance that management’s expectations, beliefs, estimates, and projections will result or be achieved and actual results may vary materially from what is expressed in or indicated by the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual performance or results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements, including, among others, the risks, uncertainties, and factors set forth under “Risk Factors” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K filed with the SEC on March 20, 2020, and other factors as may be periodically described in Duluth Trading’s subsequent filings with the SEC. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date the statements are made. Duluth Trading assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements to reflect actual results, subsequent events or circumstances or other changes affecting forward-looking information except to the extent required by applicable securities laws.

Duluth Holdings Provides Update Related to COVID-19

Temporarily closing all stores nationwide

Mount Horeb, WI – March 20, 2020 – Duluth Holdings Inc. (dba, Duluth Trading Company) (“Duluth Trading”) (NASDAQ: DLTH), a lifestyle brand of men’s and women’s casual wear, workwear and accessories, today announced a business update related to COVID-19.

Steve Schlecht, Executive Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Duluth Trading said, “The health and safety of our employees and customers is of utmost importance. What’s clear to me is that we are just at the threshold of the COVID-19 virus working its way through our society and economy. Under the guidance of local governments, we recently closed eight stores. Today we made the decision to temporarily close our remaining stores beginning tonight at 6:00 p.m. local time. Under the circumstances, there is no timeline for reopening our Duluth Trading stores, but we will do so as soon as conditions allow. Until then, please exercise every precaution for the well-being of your family, friends and neighbors.”

The Company is taking the following actions to manage through this challenging situation. Effective March 20, 2020 at 6:00 p.m. local time, the Company will close its stores nationwide and will reopen as soon as conditions allow. The Company will support sales associates with two calendar weeks of pay.

Approximately fifty percent of Duluth Trading’s sales are generated through its website and shipped directly to customers from its distribution centers. The Company plans to keep these mission-critical facilities open with heightened concern for employee health and safety. Duluth Trading remains fully committed to serving its customers 24/7 at www.duluthtrading.com.
